I want to see the zoo
And the pyramids, too,
I want to look at everything I like.
I've heard of the Pinnacles
And the Cairo girls that dance—
Say, I wonder if they'll have 'em on the Pike?

LAST EXCURSION TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The demands for sleeping car space in the Denver & Rio Grande's popular through tourist excursions have been so great, three such excursions will be run on the next and last selling dates—October 3, 4 and 5. On each of these days special tourist excursions will be run from Portland without change of cars over the "Scenic Line of the World." October 3 there will also be run a special Pullman excursion. These cars will make stops en route at Salt Lake City and Denver, affording excursionists an opportunity of viewing the various points of interest about those cities. The daylight ride through the heart of the Rockies—God's art gallery of nature—is the grandest across the American continent.

Write W. C. McBride, 124 Third Street, Portland, Ore., at once for particulars and sleeping car reservations. These being the last days upon which tickets will be sold at reduced rates travel will be particularly heavy.

PLIGHT OF MILLIONAIRE.

Mistaken for Pauper He is Confined in New York Hospital.

New York, Sept. 28.—While his friends and relatives were searching the city for him John H. Onderdonk, nephew of former Judge Onderdonk, and whose wealth is estimated at $1,000,000, was an inmate of the Metropolitan hospital, on Blackwell's Island, where he was looked upon as a derelict of the streets for four days.

It was only by accident that he was found there by his physician, Dr. M. B. Feeney, of No. 30 Seventh street. Dr. Feeney had been treating another patient in the hospital and Mr. Onderdonk heard this person mention the physician's name.

He then prevailed upon one of the employes of the institution to call the doctor by telephone and inform him of his own plight.

Mr. Onderdonk is a sufferer from locomotor ataxia, which induces fits of vertigo. He left the home of Mrs. M. B. Dresner, with whom he boarded, at No. 59 West Twelfth street, on Saturday morning and boarded a north-bound Sixth avenue car.

At Sixtieth street he left the car and was almost immediately attacked by his ailment. Sinking to a doorstep he was found there by a policeman, who took him to the Presbyterian hospital, where his case was diagnosed as one of senility.

As Mr. Onderdonk, who in earlier life was conspicuous for his fashionable appearance, has of late years worn old and shabby clothing, there was no suspicion that he was a man of means.

One feature of locomotor ataxia is that it prevents the victim from forming his thoughts into words, and Mr. Onderdonk was unable to explain his situation until the incident of the other patient rallied his mind and he was able to get word to Dr. Feeney.

Purchasing Power of $2.50 in 1901.

Westminster Gazette: The wonderful change that has taken place in the purchasing power of money is illustrated by a case cited in an article on the Manor of Great Waltham in the Essex Review for July:

"July, 1401—John Parker, sr., surrendered to his son John and said son's wife, Christina, his message and quarter-virgate of copyhold, conditionally, that they shall keep John (senior) in food and clothes (both linen and wool) well and sufficiently for the rest of his life, or else, at John's (senior) option, pay him 10 shillings a year."
Ten shillings as a fair equivalent for a whole year's liberal board, lodging, clothing and washing is noteworthy.

A Boy's Wild Ride for Life.

With family around expecting him to die, and a son riding for life, 18 miles, to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, W. H. Brown, of Leesville, Ind., endured death's agonies from asthma; but this wonderful medicine gave instant relief and soon cured him. He writes: "I now sleep soundly every night." Like marvelous cures of consumption, pneumonia, bronchitis, Coughs, Colds and Grip prove its matchless merit for all throat and lung troubles. Guaranteed bottles 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free at Chas. Rogers' drug store.

INHERITED SCROFULA

When a child I had a very severe attack of Diphtheria, which came near proving fatal. Upon recovery the glands of the neck were very much enlarged, and after the free use of iodine, the right one was reduced to its normal size, but the left one continued to grow—very slowly at first, until it was about the size of a goose egg, which began to press on the wind-pipe, causing difficult breathing, and became very painful. An incision was made and a large quantity of pus discharged. The gland was removed, or as much as could with safety be taken out. For ten years I wore a little piece of cloth about an inch long in my neck to keep the place open. During this time I had to have it cut open by the doctor every time I took cold or the opening clogged. In the Spring or early Summer of 1884 I was persuaded by my wife to use S. S. S., which I did, strictly in accordance with directions. I took twenty-six large bottles, and was entirely cured, for I have not suffered since that time.
